

Maras Group hosts LISA HO in glittering Rundle St fashion gala

Updated 22 March 2013

LISA HO boutique on Rundle Street East has staged a special night for Adelaide's fashion and media elite, hosted by East End landlord and business, Maras Group.

Guests were treated to sparkling Jansz, fine wines from Pinehill Ridge, and delicious nibbles, including a macaron tower from The Mac Factory.

Throughout the evening, guests viewed key looks from the LISA HO Autumn/Winter 13 collection modelled by the beautiful girls at Pride Models. Guests also received personal styling advice from LISA HO staff.

The exclusive event was arranged by Maras Group as the first of a series of Rundle Street East VIP fashion nights.

"We are always looking at new and creative ways of helping our valued tenants and growing the customer audience, and in-store experience. We have an exciting program of special events booked in for the whole of 2013," says Maras Group MD, Steve Maras.
