WHAT'S ON

— WHAT'S ON

East End Wine Down

The 14-year strong East End Wine Down is back once again and taking over Vardon Avenue this Saturday, 1 April, with a collection of the very best in South Australian booze.

As well as the 42 wineries on show, there will be beer and cider producers drawn from around our fair state, as well as food from Iberia, Mother Vine, NOLA and Lemongrass available to satiate and/or line the stomachs of gourmands in attendance.

Tickets are $35, which includes free tastings and a (plastic) glass, and the event will run from 12pm until 5pm.

To top it all off Skin Contact will be in charge of the tunes, so if we are still yet to convince you to come down, there's literally nothing that can please you.

See you there, drinking and dancing shoes firmly tied.
